MARLIES RETURN TO BINGHAMTON, NY BEFORE CONCLUDING WEEK'S PLAY WITH AN IMPORTANT CONTEST VERSUS THE WEST DIVISION'S IOWA STARS AT RICOH COLISEUM ON SATURDAY

THE OPPONENTS:

BINGHAMTON SENATORS

The Marlies travel to Binghamton, New York for the second time in five days to play their final road game versus an Eastern Conference opponent this season against the B-Sens – AHL affiliate of the Ottawa Senators – on Friday evening at the Broome County Veterans Memorial Arena. Toronto will look to avenge a 5-4 SO setback when last the teams met on New Year's Eve. Toronto's Colin Murphy tied the game at 4-4 with a goal at 19:23 of the third period but Binghamton's Jeff Heerema scored the shootout winner en route to being named the game's first star. Brett Engelhardt had two goals to overtake the team lead with 14 on the campaign. When last these clubs met in Toronto on December 10, the Marlies took a 2-0 lead on the strength of Kris Newbury's eighth marker of the season at 1:32 of the second period but saw the Senators score four straight goals capped by rookie Andrew Ebbett's empty-netter with 47 seconds remaining as the visitors stunned Toronto for the third consecutive time in the Big Smoke. The Senators, 11-21-1-2, are in seventh position in the American Hockey League's East Division and trail fourth place Albany by 13 points in the chase for the division's final playoff spot. Toronto is 2-3-1-1 versus East Division opponents this season but saw some success in their most recent venture outside of the Western Conference in winning at Wilkes-Barre/Scranton and Hershey in mid-December. After their win at Toronto, the Senators lost four straight before snapping the skid with a Boxing Day win over visiting Syracuse. (RW) Heerema leads the Senators in scoring through 35 games with 34 points (17g-17a=34 pts). Goaltender Jeff Glass has one shutout win among his four victories (4-11-1) while maintaining a GAA of 3.80 and a 0.890 save percentage.

Notables: Glass won a gold medal with Team Canada's 2005 WJC entry at Grand Forks, ND. Toronto is 1-3-1-1 in six all-time meetings with the B-Sens. Binghamton is arguably continuing to prove to be the Marlies' biggest nemesis. In addition to their first match-up this season, and to their first shutout loss in franchise history on November 18, 2005, Toronto relinquished 1-0 and 2-1 leads in losing 4-2 on home-ice last December 27. On February 11, the Marlies overcame a 1-0 deficit but surrendered a 4-1 lead when Heerema scored with 1:04 remaining in overtime to give the visitors a 5-4 victory. Current Maple Leafs Bates Battaglia and Kris Newbury each had multi-point evenings in a 3-2 Toronto win when the Marlies won their lone game at Binghamton. The Senators have not played since last Sunday's win over Toronto on home-ice. The club has won only four of their past 13 games, two of which have come at the Marlies' expense.

IOWA STARS

The Iowa Stars – AHL affiliate of the Dallas Stars – make their lone regular-season stop in Toronto on Saturday night as the Marlies play their final home-game before a daunting seven-game road trip. Saturday evening's contest marks the first of two games between the clubs this season. The Marlies visit Des Moines' Wells Fargo Arena one week from Saturday's match-up. The Stars, 19-16-1-0, are currently in the midst of a three-game road trip which sees the team play their lone three games in Canada this season. The Hamilton Bulldogs overcame 2-0 and 3-1 deficits before defeating Iowa 4-3 in overtime on Wednesday evening at Copps Coliseum. Hamilton's Maxim Lapierre beat former Bulldog Dan Ellis with an unassisted marker at 2:29 of the extra session to help the 'dogs snap a three game losing streak. Iowa will play at Hamilton once again on Friday evening before meeting Toronto on Saturday at Ricoh. Despite having won only four of 19 home games, the Marlies have had success versus Western Conference opponents on home ice this season following victories over Peoria and Milwaukee earlier this year. The Stars currently sit in fourth position in the West Division and maintain a one point lead over Milwaukee in the chase for the division's final playoff spot. They sport an 11-8-1 record away from home. (C) Marty Sertich leads all current Stars in scoring with 25 points through 36 games (9g-16a=25pts). Goaltender Ellis has a record of 11-9-0 while maintaining a GAA of 3.37 and a 0.878 save percentage through 22 appearances with the club this season.

Notables: Toronto split last year's two game series with Iowa as each team won on home ice. This year's contests versus West Division opponents take-on added significance to those of last season. Should the West's fifth place finisher end the season with more points than the North Division's fourth place team, there will be a cross-over format in the first round of North Division semifinal play. The North's Rochester Americans would face Milwaukee in the first round should the standings finish in the same order as is current. Iowa was the last AHL team to lose a game in overtime or shootout fashion this season. The Marlies were the longest to hold-out in 2005-06.

2007 Rbk HOCKEY AHL ALL-STAR CLASSIC

The 2007 Rbk Hockey American Hockey League All-Star Classic is coming to Toronto! The two day event will begin on Sunday, January 28 with the 2007 CCM AHL All-Star Skills Competition. The competition pits players from the Canadian AHL All-Stars against players from the Planet/USA AHL All-Star team as they compete in seven different events. The Classic concludes on Monday, January 29 when the two teams meet in the AHL All-Star Game. Start time on both evenings is 7 p.m. at Ricoh Coliseum. Tickets are available by calling 416-872-5000 or by visiting torontomarlies.com Both the CCM AHL All-Star Skills Competition and the AHL All-Star Game will air live in Canada on Rogers Sportsnet. Fans are encouraged to vote for their favourite players online at the theahl.com. All-Star Fan Balloting presented by Rbk Hockey continues through January 9, 2007.

CCM/VECTOR AHL PLAYER OF THE WEEK NOMINEE

For the week ending January 1st, 2007, the Toronto Marlies have nominated right wing Brett Engelhardt for consideration as the CCM/Vector AHL Player of the Week. Engelhardt earned four points (including three goals) over the course of the Marlies' four games last week. He scored the game-winning marker midway through the third period in last Friday evening's 3-2 win over the Bulldogs at Copps Coliseum in Hamilton. This week's award was ultimately won by Hartford's Al Montoya.

MARLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Once again this season, the Marlies are embarking on their Safe Schools campaign to promote an anti-bullying message to young students across Toronto. Stay tuned to this page as Marlies' school visits continue following the holiday break.

MARLIES NOTES

** Marlies' goaltender Justin Pogge and defenceman Jay Harrison have recently returned from Switzerland's Spengler Cup tournament where they earned a silver medal while representing Canada at the yearly Davos tournament. The hosts captured the gold medal following a 3-2 win over Canada on New Year's Eve. Pogge earned two wins while Harrison had Saturday's game-winning goal in semifinal action versus Germany.

** Recently recalled Marlies' forward Kris Newbury scored the first NHL goal of his career in the Maple Leafs' 5-1 win over Boston last night at Air Canada Centre. The Brampton, ON native has now played five games with the blue & white since recall on Dec. 23. Ben Ondrus earned an assist on Newbury's goal for his second NHL point.

** The Marlies set a record with six road victories in the month of December. Their previous high of five was set last January. Toronto needed their final road game of the month to do so, earning a 3-2 victory at Copps Coliseum in Hamilton last Friday evening.
