MARLIES PLAY THREE HOME GAMES THIS WEEK! BEGIN WITH FIRST OF TWO VERSUS MILWAUKEE ADMIRALS ON WEDNESDAY EVENING AT RICOH COLISEUM

THE OPPONENTS:

MILWAUKEE ADMIRALS – WED. PROMO = LEAFS ALUMNI NIGHT & SUN. PROMO = TEAM PHOTO NIGHT

In the midst of a season-high 10 game road trip, the Milwaukee Admirals – AHL affiliate of the Nashville Predators – make their first of two visits to Toronto on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday's game marks the sixth of those 10 games which also sees the club visit Rochester, Manitoba, Hamilton, Albany and San Antonio. Of all these teams, only the New York based teams will not host the Admirals twice on their trip. Milwaukee, 7-9-2-0, is in sixth place in the AHL's West Division, eight points behind Peoria in the chase for the division's final playoff spot. Just shy of the midway point in their trip, the team is 2-2 after picking up overtime wins at Rochester and Manitoba. The Marlies come into Wednesday's game with a record of 7-10-2-1 and amassed five of a possible six points in the standings with back to back wins against Syracuse and an overtime loss versus the Americans last weekend. The Marlies are 3-6-2-0 on home-ice this season and 1-1 versus West Division opponents. (C) Rich Peverley (5g-11a=16pts) leads the Admirals in scoring this season. In goal, Scott Reid has appeared in 11 games for Milwaukee and has a record of 3-6-0 with a 2.88 GAA and a 0.897 save percentage.

Notables: Despite an overall record below .500, Milwaukee is 5-3-1 away from the Bradley Center. The Admirals play at Copps Coliseum this evening, site of their 6-1 loss on Sunday afternoon. Toronto garnered three of a possible four points in two meetings with Milwaukee last season, losing 4-3 in overtime on January 15 before winning 5-2 at Ricoh Coliseum in late March. Brad Leeb (1g, 4a) and John Pohl (2g, 3a) led the club in scoring while playing in both meetings between the teams. Current Predator Scottie Upshall tied the game at 15:52 of the third period before scoring at 1:45 of the extra session when last the Admirals defeated Toronto. The teams will conclude the season series when the Marlies play their second of two games in Wisconsin on January 20, 2007. Milwaukee lost last year's Calder Cup Finals in six games against Hershey.

HAMILTON BULLDOGS

The Marlies and Bulldogs square off for the fourth time this season, and third at Copps Coliseum, when Toronto meets the Montreal Canadiens' AHL affiliate on Friday night in the Steel City. Trailing 3-1 after the first period on October 20, the Marlies tallied three second period goals then used Erik Westrum's shorthanded marker early in the third to win the first of 12 meetings between the teams this season. Hamilton rebounded by winning 6-4 at Copps five days later. The Marlies hosted Hamilton in a November match-up at Air Canada Centre for the second consecutive season, and were defeated 2-1 on the strength of Duncan Milroy's game-winning goal at 10:43 of the first period. Brad Leeb had the lone goal for Toronto. All three of the game's goals were powerplay markers and recorded in the opening frame. The Bulldogs, 10-8-0-

1, are tied for second place in the AHL's North Division and lead Toronto by four points. Hamilton is 7-4-0-1 on home-ice this season and 1-1 versus the Marlies in their home building. Milroy leads the 'dogs in scoring through 19 games this season (10g-9a=19pts). In addition to the one goal he allowed on November 11 at Toronto, goaltender Jaroslav Halak has three shutout victories among his six wins in nine games. He has a record of 6-3-0 with a 1.44 GAA and a save percentage of 0.952. Halak turned aside 42 of 43 Toronto shots when last the teams met just short of three weeks ago.

Notables: Hamilton will be in Toronto to face the Marlies at Ricoh Coliseum next Wednesday night. The Marlies will not play a Wednesday evening home game again until mid-February. Marlies' forwards Colin Murphy and Kris Newbury each have a goal and four assists versus the Bulldogs this season while Milroy leads both teams with six points in three head-to-head contests. Hamilton has earned points in eight of their last 10 games as they attempt to reach the playoffs for the first time since 2004-05. Friday's contest is the sixteenth all time between the clubs. Toronto has a slim lead with an 8-7-0 record. Trailing 3-0 after the first three games between the clubs last year, Toronto won eight of the next 10 meetings before losing the last two.

SYRACUSE CRUNCH – SAT. PROMO = DEGRASSI “THE NEXT GENERATION” NIGHT

Toronto hosts the Syracuse Crunch – AHL affiliate of the Columbus Blue Jackets – for the second time in eight days when the puck drops on Saturday evening at 7 p.m. The Marlies lead the season series 3-0 following two wins last weekend. Brett Engelhardt scored both goals in a 2-1 win last Friday night in central New York. Forwards Robbie Earl and Kris Newbury each had three points as Toronto swept the weekend series with a 5-3 win on home-ice last Saturday afternoon. Syracuse, 4-14-0-1, is off to a slow start this season having won just four of their first 19 games. They are the only club in the 27 team AHL to have yet reached a double digit point total and trail the North Division's final playoff spot by 12 points. The Crunch plays at Wilkes-Barre/Scranton (on Wednesday) and Binghamton (on Friday) before concluding their weekend in Toronto. (C) Geoff Platt (11g-4a=15 pts) and (RW) Joe Motzko (3g-12a=15 pts) lead Syracuse in scoring this season. Platt scored the game's first goal in both of last weekend's meetings. Goaltender Ty Conklin made 80 saves over two games versus Toronto last week but saw his record fall to 2-8-1 with a 3.47 GAA and a save percentage of 0.900.

Notables: A Toronto native, Platt played four seasons in the Ontario Hockey League, only one of which was with an Ontario based team. Platt's first season (2001-02) was with the North Bay Centennials. He was in the lineup for North Bay when the Cents played their final game in franchise history, losing to the St. Michael's Majors in the first round of that year's OHL playoffs. Toronto forwards Engelhardt, Earl, Newbury and Erik Westrum each have four points in appearing in all three games versus the Crunch this season. The Marlies opened regular season play with a 6-0 home-ice win on October 6. Jean-Francois Racine has earned all three of his wins this season versus Syracuse. The teams meet next in the Salt City on December 27 at 7:30 p.m.

CCM/VECTOR AHL PLAYER OF THE WEEK NOMINEE

For the week ending November 26th, 2006, the Toronto Marlies have nominated centre Kris Newbury for consideration as the CCM/Vector AHL Player of the Week. Newbury recorded five points (two goals, three assists) in two home games (vs. Syracuse & Rochester) last weekend. This week's award was ultimately won by Norfolk's Brandon Bochenski.

MARLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Marlies' forward Jeremy Williams will join former Maple Leaf Rod Seiling as Toronto East General Hospital (Coxwell Lobby, 825 Coxwell Avenue) kicks-off their third annual Holiday Card Campaign this Thursday, November 30 at 4 p.m. Hospital staff and local students will be assisted by Marlies' mascot Duke the Dog as they demonstrate the cards they have designed for this year's campaign.

MARLIES NOTES

** US Thanksgiving weekend was a success on the ice for a number of the Marlies' American players. Brett Engelhardt (Sheboygan, WI) had both goals in Toronto's 2-1 win on Friday at Syracuse while Robbie Earl (Chicago, IL) had three points in the team's home win on Saturday. Defenceman Chris Harrington (St. Cloud, MN) scored what proved to be the game's winner with a PP marker in the home win over Syracuse. Harrington's 11 points have him ranked fourth among all Western Conference defencemen.

** Marlies' netminder Jean-Francois Racine was between the pipes for both of the weekend's wins over Syracuse and now has three victories on the season, all of which have come against the Crunch. A native of Roxton Falls, Quebec, Racine leads the franchise in wins for a goaltender with 22.

** Former University of Wisconsin Badger Robbie Earl continued his strong play of late and was named the game's first star in Saturday's win over Syracuse. The Chicago native had the first two goal game of his pro career when he netted a pair of first period goals to help lead the Marlies to victory.
