MARLIES CONTINUE THREE GAME ROAD SWING; RETURN HOME ON WEEKEND

Toronto Hosts Lake Erie and Manitoba This Weekend at Ricoh Coliseum

Opponents This Week:

(Mar.11): The Marlies visit the Syracuse Crunch – AHL affiliate of the Columbus Blue Jackets – on Wednesday night at 7:00 p.m. at Oncenter Arena. This will mark the seventh of eight meetings between the two clubs this season. Toronto downed Syracuse in their last meeting on February 18 with an 8-5 win. Jiri Tlusty led the way with a franchise record, five goals; while five other Marlies players finished with two or more points. Mike York of the Crunch had one goal and one assist in the loss. Adam Munro made 33 saves for his eighth win of the season. The Crunch owns a 3-3-0-0 record against Toronto this season and has outscored them 22-21. The Marlies defeated the Crunch last season in Game Seven of the Semi-Finals, advancing to the Western Conference Finals. Syracuse currently ranks fifth in the North Division with a 30-28-4-2 record for 66 points through 64 games. The Crunch sits five points behind the Marlies in the division. The Crunch are 17-10-2-0 at home this season and 4-5-1-0 in their past 10 games overall. Mike York leads all Crunch players with 47 points (10 goals, 37 assists). Jon Mirasty ranks first on the Crunch and fourth in the AHL with 217 penalty minutes. Syracuse is the most penalized team in the AHL averaging over 24 minutes in penalties per game. The two teams will meet again on Sunday, March 29 at 4:00 p.m. for the final time this season in Toronto.

The Marlies went 2-2-0-0 this past week and currently rank fourth in the North Division with 71 points. On Wednesday night, Jiri Tlusty set the Marlies franchise record with his six-point night.

(Mar. 13): The Marlies visit the Rochester Americans – AHL affiliate of the Florida Panthers – on Friday, March 13 at 7:35 p.m. at the Blue Cross Arena in Rochester, NY. The Marlies downed the Americans in their last meeting on February 22, 6-2 at Blue Cross Arena in Rochester. Jiri Tlusty had two goals and one assist and Ben Ondrus had a pair of goals. Adam Munro got his ninth win of the season, stopping 30 shots. Rochester currently ranks seventh in the North Division with a 24-36-0-5 record for 53 points. Michal Repik paces the way for the Amerks with 41 points (18 goals, 23 assists). Toronto native Michael Duco leads the Americans with 135 penalty minutes. Panthers prospect Kenndal McArdle was drafted in the first round (20th overall) by Florida in the 2005 Entry Draft. Shawn Matthias, a Mississauga-native, was originally drafted in the second round (47th overall) by Detroit in the 2006 Entry Draft and has eight goals and six assists in 41 games with Rochester. Matthias helped lead Canada to a 2008 IIHF World Junior Championship Gold Medal, scoring five points in the tournament. The two teams meet for the last time this season on April 8 in Toronto at Ricoh Coliseum.

(Mar. 14): The Marlies play their eighth and final meeting of the season against the Lake Erie Monsters – AHL affiliate of the Colorado Avalanche – on Saturday afternoon at Ricoh Coliseum. The Marlies were shutout by the Monsters in their last meeting in Lake Erie on February 27 by a score of 2-0. Justin Pogge made 26 saves on 28 shots in the loss. The Monsters own a 5-2-0-0 record this season against Toronto. The Monsters currently sit in sixth place in the North Division with a 30-30-1-5 record for 66 points. Chris Durno paces the Monsters with 38 points (14 goals, 24 assists) and has a team-high 123 penalty minutes. Durno was part of the Rampage last season when the Marlies played San Antonio in the first round of the Calder Cup playoffs. Last season the Marlies owned a 6-1-0-1 record against Lake Erie. Tom Fristche played last season at Ohio State University where he recorded 19 points (five goals, 14 assists). He was drafted by Colorado in the second round (47th overall) of the 2005 NHL Entry Draft and is the younger brother of Minnesota Wild forward Dan Fritsche. Lake Erie is currently on a three-game winning streak and are 8-2-0-0 in their past 10 games.

(Mar. 15): The Marlies take on the Manitoba Moose – AHL affiliate of the Vancouver Canucks – on Sunday at Ricoh Coliseum. Manitoba ranks first in the North Division with a 43-17-0-5 record for 91 points. Toronto is 2-2-0-0 against their division-rival this season, winning back-to-back games in Toronto in late-December. Bates Battaglia has recorded three assists in two games against the Moose this season. Manitoba's 0.700 points percentage ranks first in the AHL. The Moose are 21-7-0-3 away from the MTS Centre, ranking first in the league with only seven road losses. Jason Krog paces the way for the Moose with 66 points (22 goals, 44 assists). Michael Grabner was drafted in the first round (14th overall) by the Vancouver Canucks in the 2006 NHL Entry Draft. Manitoba captain Mike Keane is a three-time Stanley Cup winner. He won with the Montreal Canadiens in 1993, the Colorado Avalanche in 1996 and the Dallas Stars in 1999. He is a veteran of 1161 NHL games where he recorded 470 points (168 goals, 302 assists). Jason Krog won the Calder Cup last season with the Chicago Wolves and was named the playoff MVP and regular season MVP of the league. He became only the third player in AHL history to lead the league in goals, assists and points. Krog and Andre Deveaux were teammates with the Chicago Wolves last season. Moose goaltender, Karl Goehring was a member of the Syracuse Crunch last season and played against the Marlies in the second-round of the Calder Cup playoffs. Manitoba ranks first overall in the AHL (tie) on the penalty kill with an 86.8 % success rate.

MARLIES HEADLINES:

Jiri On Fire: Jiri Tlustý set the Marlies franchise record with six points in one game on Wednesday night with two goals and four assists. Tlustý's six-point game is the AHL season-high so far this season. He's recorded 16 points in his past eight games (five goals, 11 assists). Tlustý set the Marlies franchise record with his five-goal night on February 18 versus Syracuse, also setting the Marlies season-high with a plus-six rating. He has notched eight multi-point games in his past 15 contests. Tlustý has registered at least a point in 15 of his last 18 games. He registered a Marlies season-high, four assists on Sunday, February 8 against Grand Rapids. Tlustý had his nine-game point streak (11 goals, nine assists) come to an end on February 21 against Rochester. In 53 games with the Marlies this season, Tlustý has racked up 58 points (23 goals, 35 assists); with 27 of his points coming on the power play. Tlustý ranks second on the team in points and first in goals.

Free Willy: Jeremy Williams scored his first hat-trick of the season on Sunday afternoon in Toronto's 4-3 win in Hamilton. He has registered a goal in eight of his past 12 games. He had his five-game goal streak snapped on Friday night. In 31 games this season he has recorded 21 goals and nine assists and has a club-high, six game-winning goals. Williams ranks first on the Marlies and third (tie) in the AHL with 15 power play tallies. He ranks sixth (tie) in the AHL in game-winning goals. Williams is the Marlies all-time leader in goals (65) power play goals (31) and game-winning goals (19).

Tim Becoming a Staple: Tim Stapleton has notched 24 points (13 goals, 11 assists) over his past 15 games. Stapleton made his NHL debut on February 26 against the New York Islanders and scored his first career NHL goal last Saturday at Ottawa. The Oak Park, Illinois native ranks first on the Marlies and seventh (tie) in the AHL with 41 assists. Stapleton ranks first in the AHL with seven shootout goals. In 55 games this season, Stapleton has 60 points (19 goals, 41 assists) including three game-winning tallies. The American Hockey League named Stapleton the Reebok/AHL Player of the Week for period ending February 1, 2009. He had a season-high, eight game point streak from Jan. 30 to Feb. 18.

Home Ice Advantage: Toronto's only lost six home games since December 14, 2008. The Marlies have won their past six of 10 games at home. Toronto has out-scored their opponents 82-62 at Ricoh Coliseum during a 19-game stretch. The Marlies hold a 19-12-0-2 advantage at home on the season. The Marlies set a franchise record on Friday, January 30 with their seventh consecutive home victory when they defeated the Hamilton Bulldogs, 4-2. The Marlies finished their season-high, 11-game home stand on February 21 with a 7-4-0-0 record.

Bates On The Board: Bates Battaglia has recorded 18 points in his last 17 contests (two goals, 16 assists). He's totaled six assists in his past six games. Battaglia had his six-game assist streak snapped on February 21 against Rochester. In 43 games this season, he ranks third on the team in points with 37 (13 goals, 24 assists). His plus-11 rating ranks second on the Marlies.

A Month to Remember: Jiri Tlustý was named the CCM/AHL Player of the Month for February. In 11 games in February, Tlustý notched 12 goals and 11 assists while recording a plus-11 rating. Tlustý began the month by scoring Toronto's only goal in a 4-1 loss to Syracuse on Feb. 7, and then matched a franchise record with four assists in a 10-5 win over Grand Rapids the next day. He had his biggest game of his young career on Feb. 18, scoring five goals on five shots and posting a plus-six rating. Tlustý had a season-high, nine-game point streak during the month.

On A Roll: Since November 19, 2008 the Marlies are 28-18-2-3 and have earned at least a point in their past 33 of 51 games (0.647 points percentage). Toronto's won four out of their past seven games decided by a shootout, despite losing their past two. Their home record since November 19 is 15-9-0-0.

Devo Time: Andre Deveaux has recorded 11 points (five goals, six assists) in his past 13 games. Deveaux ranks third (tie) in the AHL (active players) with a .204 shooting percentage (11 goals on 54 shots). He notched his second hat-trick of the season on Sunday, February 8 against the Griffins in the Marlies 10-5 win. Two of his three goals came on the power play. Deveaux ranks second on the club with eight power play tallies. Deveaux scored his first career AHL hat-trick on October 26, 2008 versus the Houston Aeros. In 27 games with the Marlies this season, he's tallied 19 points (11 goals, eight assists).

A Franchise Night: On Sunday, February 8 the Marlies had a franchise game when they defeated the Grand Rapids Griffins 10-5 at Ricoh Coliseum. The 10 goals the Marlies scored was a franchise-high and their five first period tallies was a season-high. Tim Stapleton led the way with four-goals in the game, three of which came in a span of four minutes and forty seconds. Andre Deveaux also scored a hat-trick in the game, his second of the season. In all, eight different Marlies players registered a multi-point game. Jiri Tlustý had a season-high four assists. The Marlies five power play goals was also an all-time high.

Shooting For The Stars: The Marlies rank in the top-five in the AHL in both shots for and shots against this season. The Marlies average 31.7 shots per game against their opponents (fourth in the AHL) and rank first for shots against with 26.4 per game. The Marlies have greatly out-shot their opponents in the second period, 704-572. Tim Stapleton set a Marlies single-season high with 10 shots on goal on January 31 versus the Rockford IceHogs.

Special Teams:

Power Play: Toronto's power play currently ranks second in the AHL with a 21.2% success rate. Over their past six games they've scored 13 power play goals. On Sunday afternoon the Marlies struck for three goals while on the man-advantage. Jiri Tlustý has registered 10 power play points (one goal, nine assists) in his past six games. Their power play set a franchise record with five goals on Sunday, February 8 versus the Grand Rapids Griffins when they went an impressive 5-for-7 in the game. The Marlies have registered 14, multi-power play goal games so far this season. Their power play on the road ranks fifth (tie) overall at 21.0%. They've scored at least one power play goal in 19 of 30 road games. Tim Stapleton leads all Marlie skaters with 30 power play points.

Multi-Point Games: Tim Stapleton leads the team with 16 multi-point games this season. This past week, Stapleton, Jeremy Williams (twice), Bates Battaglia, Jiri Tlusty, Jaime Sifers and Anton Stralman each recorded at least two points in a game.
