MARLIES HOST PROVIDENCE FOR FIRST TIME IN TEAM HISTORY

Toronto Travels to Hamilton Twice this Week; Host Hershey Bears on Saturday

Opponents This Week:

(Mar. 4): The Marlies face the Providence Bruins – AHL affiliate of the Boston Bruins – on Wednesday night at Ricoh Coliseum. This will mark the first time in Providence’s history that they’ve traveled to Toronto to play the Marlies. This will be the second and final meeting between these two clubs this season. Toronto fell to the Bruins in a shootout, 4-3 on December 19. The Marlies were able to force overtime with a late power play goal from Tim Stapleton, but eventually fell 4-3 in a shootout. Mark Bell and Max Taylor also scored for the Marlies. Providence currently ranks first in the Atlantic Division with a record of 34-22-2-3 for 73 points, but are winless in their past two games. They own a 13-12-2-3 record on the road this year. Last season the Bruins won the MacGregor Kilpatrick Trophy (regular season points champion) with a 55-18-3-4 record for 117 points. Providence lost to the Portland Pirates in the Division Finals in the postseason. The Boston Bruins and Providence partnership is the longest active AHL/NHL affiliation in the league. The Bruins are led by Johnny Boychuk with 51 points (16 goals, 35 assists) in 60 games. Peter Schaefer has played in 42 games for Providence this season, collecting seven goals and 17 assists. Schaefer has skated in 556 career NHL games, registering 259 points (98 goals, 161 assists) and 198 penalty minutes. Bruins goalie Tuukka Rask was originally the Toronto Maple Leafs first round, 21st overall, 2005 Entry Draft selection.

Marlies defenceman Anton Stralman registered three goals and three assists last week. Five of his six points came on the power play. In 27 games this season with the Marlies, he’s totaled 13 points and a plus-seven rating.

(Mar. 6 & 8): The Marlies play their 10th and 11th games of the season against their provincial-rival, the Hamilton Bulldogs – AHL affiliate of the Montreal Canadiens – on Friday night and Sunday afternoon at Copps Coliseum. The Marlies are 4-4-0-1 against the Bulldogs this season, including a 7-1 win in their most recent matchup last Saturday at Copps Coliseum. Five different Marlie players had two or more points in the game, including Anton Stralman’s four-point night. The Bulldogs currently rank third in the North Division with a 36-23-2-0 record for 74 points through 61 games this season.

Hamilton owns a 17-13-1-0 record at Copps Coliseum. The Bulldogs’ 199 goals for ranks second in the Western Conference and fourth overall in the AHL. Yannick Weber took part in the 2009 AHL All-Star Classic and was a teammate of Jaime Sifers for PlanetUSA. Marlies forward Ryan Hamilton and Bulldogs defenceman Shawn Belle were teammates last year with the Houston Aeros. Yanick Lehoux currently ranks first on the Bulldogs with 50 points (17 goals, 33 assists). The Marlies hold a 26-16-0-3 all-time advantage over their QEW-rival. Toronto and Hamilton will have their final meeting of the regular season on Saturday, April 11 in Toronto.

(Mar. 7): The Marlies host the Hershey Bears – AHL affiliate of the Washington Capitals - on Saturday afternoon at Ricoh Coliseum. This will be the first of two meetings between the two clubs. Toronto defeated Hershey in both matchups last season and outscored them 9-2 in two games. The Bears rank first in the East Division and first in the Eastern Conference with a 39-17-1-5 record for 84 points. They own a 17-9-1-3 record on the road this season, ranking tied for third with the most road wins.

The Bears have earned at least a point in their past five games (3-0-1-1) and rank first in the league with 238 goals for. Keith Aucoin paces the club and the AHL with 82 points (21 goals, 61 assists). Hershey has the top two points leaders in the AHL. Alexandre Giroux ranks second with 73 points (43 goals, 30 assists). Bears' left winger, Chris Bourque is a second-round, 33rd overall, 2004 draft pick of the Washington Capitals and ranks fourth (tie) in the AHL with 200 shots. He scored his first career NHL goal this season while with the Capitals on December 30 versus the Buffalo Sabres. Bourque is the son of NHL Hall of Famer Ray Bourque. The Marlies own an all-time record of 4-2-0-0 against Hershey. Marlies assistant coach Joe Paterson played in 87 games with the Hershey Bears (1984-86) and collected 68 points (31 goals, 37 assists) with 241 penalty minutes.

MARLIES HEADLINES:

Jiri Powering Up: Jiri Tlustý registered two assists on Sunday afternoon and scored a goal and added two assists on Saturday night against the Bulldogs. He's recorded eight points in his past four games (three goals, five assists). Tlustý set the Marlies franchise record with his five-goal night on February 18 versus Syracuse. He also set the Marlies season-high with a plus-six rating. He has notched seven multi-point games in his past 11 contests. Tlustý has registered at least a point in 12 of his last 14 games and has averaged 2.0 points per game during that span. He's scored at least a goal in nine of his past 14 games (14 goals). He registered a Marlies season-high, four assists on Sunday, February 8 against Grand Rapids. Tlustý had his nine-game point streak (11 goals, nine assists) come to an end on February 21 against Rochester. In 49 games with the Marlies this season, Tlustý has racked up 50 points (21 goals, 29 assists); with 22 of his points coming on the power play. Tlustý ranks second on the team in points and first in goals.

Free Willy: Jeremy Williams has registered a goal in six of his past eight games. He had his five-game goal streak snapped on Friday night. In 27 games this season he has recorded 17 goals and seven assists and is tied for the club lead with four game-winning goals. Williams ranks first on the Marlies and ninth (tie) in the AHL with 11 power play tallies. Williams is the Marlies all-time leader in goals (61) power play goals (27) and game-winning goals (17).

Home Ice Advantage: The Marlies finished their season-high, 11-game home stand with a 7-4-0-0 record. Toronto's only lost five home games since December 14, 2008. The Marlies have won their past five of eight games at home. Toronto has out-scored their opponents 75-52 at Ricoh Coliseum during a 17-game stretch. The Marlies hold an 18-11-0-2 advantage at home on the season. The Marlies set a franchise record on Friday, January 30 with their seventh consecutive home victory when they defeated the Hamilton Bulldogs, 4-2.

Bates On The Board: Bates Battaglia has recorded 14 points in his last 13 contests (two goals, 12 assists). Battaglia had his six-game assist streak snapped on February 21 against Rochester. In 39 games this season, he ranks third on the team in points with 33 (13 goals, 20 assists). His plus-14 rating ranks second on the Marlies and 12th out of all forwards in the AHL.

What A Plus!: Phil Oreskovic currently ranks seventh (tie) in the AHL with a plus-20 rating. On February 18 against the Crunch, Oreskovic registered a season-high, plus-four rating. In 56 games this season, Oreskovic has tallied nine points (one goal, eight assists) and 80 penalty minutes.

On A Roll: Since November 19, 2008 the Marlies are 26-16-2-3 and have earned at least a point in their past 31 of 47 games (0.659 points percentage). Toronto's won four out of their past seven games decided by a shootout, despite losing their past two. Their home record since November 19 is 14-8-0-0.

Devo Time: Andre Deveaux has recorded 11 points (five goals, six assists) in his past 11 games. Deveaux scored two goals in Toronto's 5-4 loss on Sunday. Deveaux ranks fourth in the AHL with a .208 shooting percentage (11 goals on 53 shots). He notched his second hat-trick of the season on Sunday, February 8 against the Griffins in the Marlies 10-5 win. Two of his three goals came on the power play. Deveaux ranks second on the club with eight power play tallies. Deveaux scored his first career AHL hat-trick on October 26, 2008 versus the Houston Aeros. In 25 games with the Marlies this season, he's tallied 19 points (11 goals, eight assists).

A Franchise Night: On Sunday, February 8 the Marlies had a franchise game when they defeated the Grand Rapids Griffins 10-5 at Ricoh Coliseum. The 10 goals the Marlies scored was a franchise-high and their five first period tallies was a season-high. Tim Stapleton led the way with four-goals in the game, three of which came in a span of four minutes and forty seconds. Andre Deveaux also scored a hat-trick in the game, his second of the season. In all, eight different Marlies players registered a multi-point game. Jiri Tlustý had a season-high four assists. The Marlies five power play goals was also an all-time high.

Shooting For The Stars: The Marlies rank in the top-five in the AHL in both shots for and shots against this season. The Marlies average 31.9 shots per game against their opponents (fourth in the AHL) and rank third for shots against with 26.6 per game. The Marlies have greatly out-shot their opponents in the second period, 671-540. Tim Stapleton set a Marlies single-season high with 10 shots on goal on January 31 versus the Rockford IceHogs.

Special Teams:

Power Play: Toronto's power play currently ranks fourth in the AHL with a 20.5% success rate. Over their past two games they've scored six power play goals (6-for-16). Jiri Tlustý has registered five power play points (one goal, four assists) in his past two games and Anton Stralman has scored three power play goals during that same span. Their power play set a franchise record with five goals on Sunday, February 8 versus the Grand Rapids Griffins when they went an impressive 5-for-7 in the game. The Marlies have registered 12, multi-power play goal games so far this season. Their power play on the road ranks sixth (tie) overall at 20.6%. They've scored at least one power play goal in 18 of 29 road games. Tim Stapleton leads all Marlie skaters with 26 power play points.

Multi-Point Games: Tim Stapleton leads the team with 15 multi-point games this season. This past week, Ryan Hamilton, Brent Aubin, Jeremy Williams, Anton Stralman (twice) and Jiri Tlustý (twice) each recorded at least two points.
